Cars, Trucks and Buses

Some cars are big and some cars are small.

Some cars are long and
some cars are short.

This is a racing car.
It goes fast.

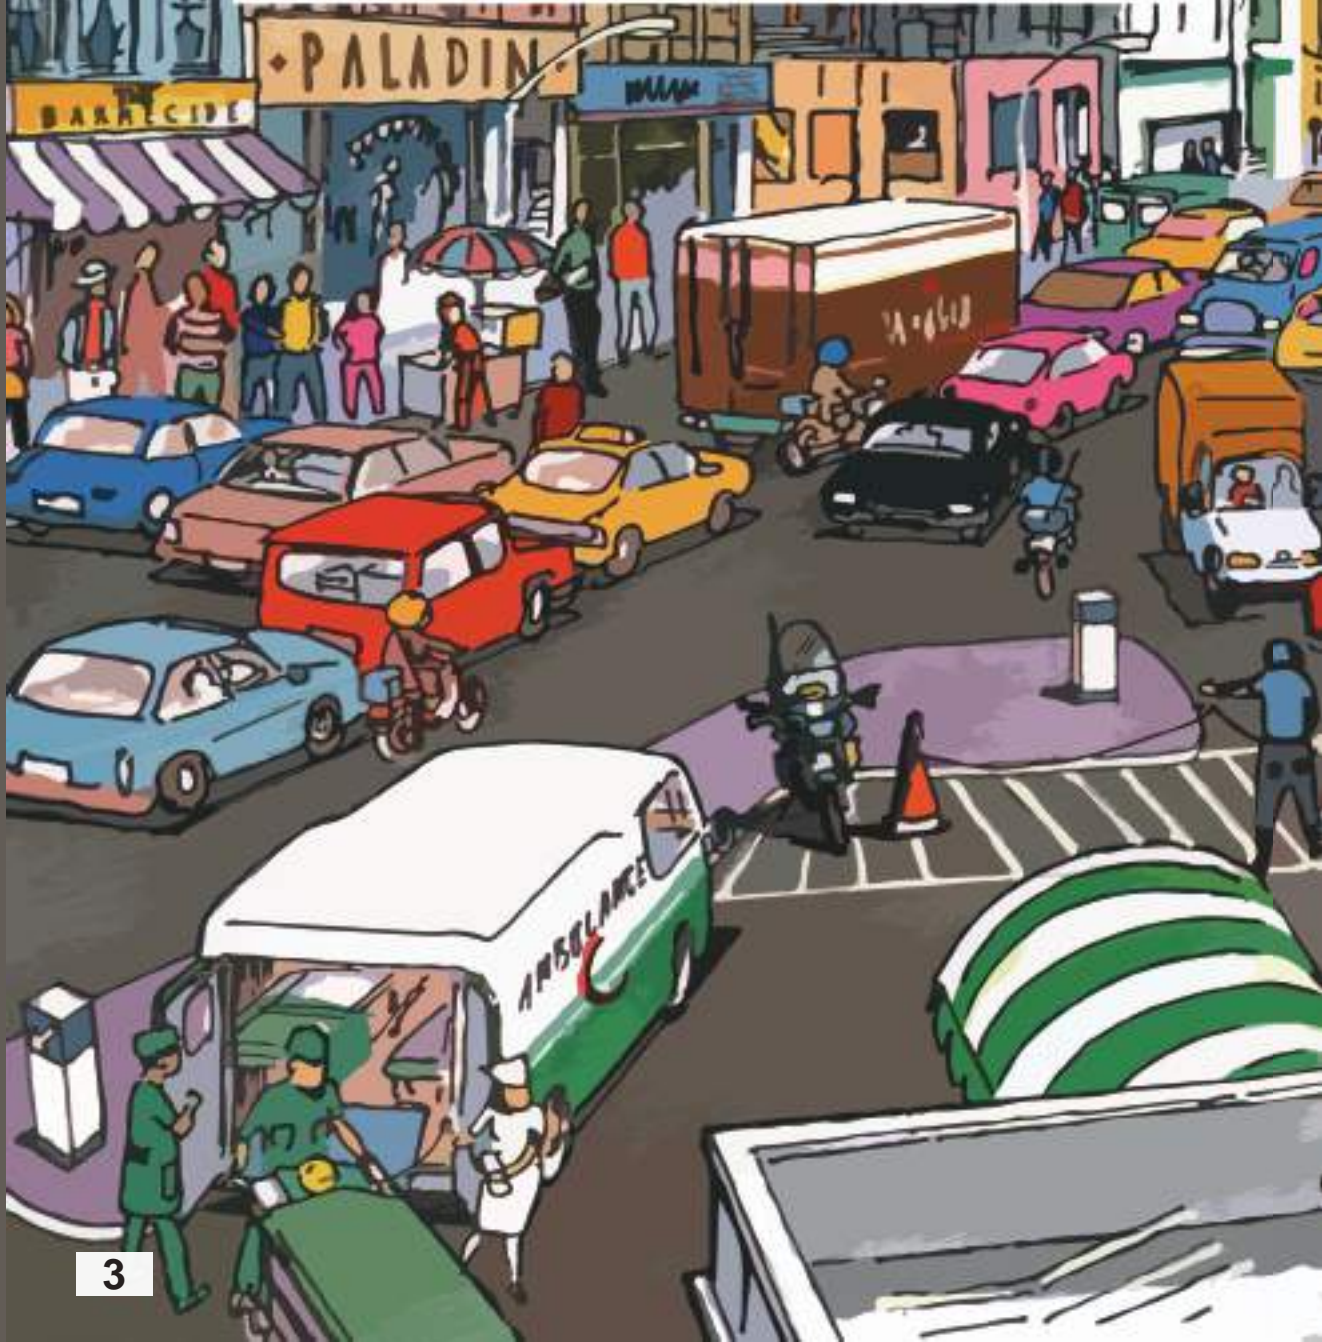

It goes fast around the track.
It races with other cars.

This is a van.

It looks like a big box.

A van can carry many things.

A van can carry people too.

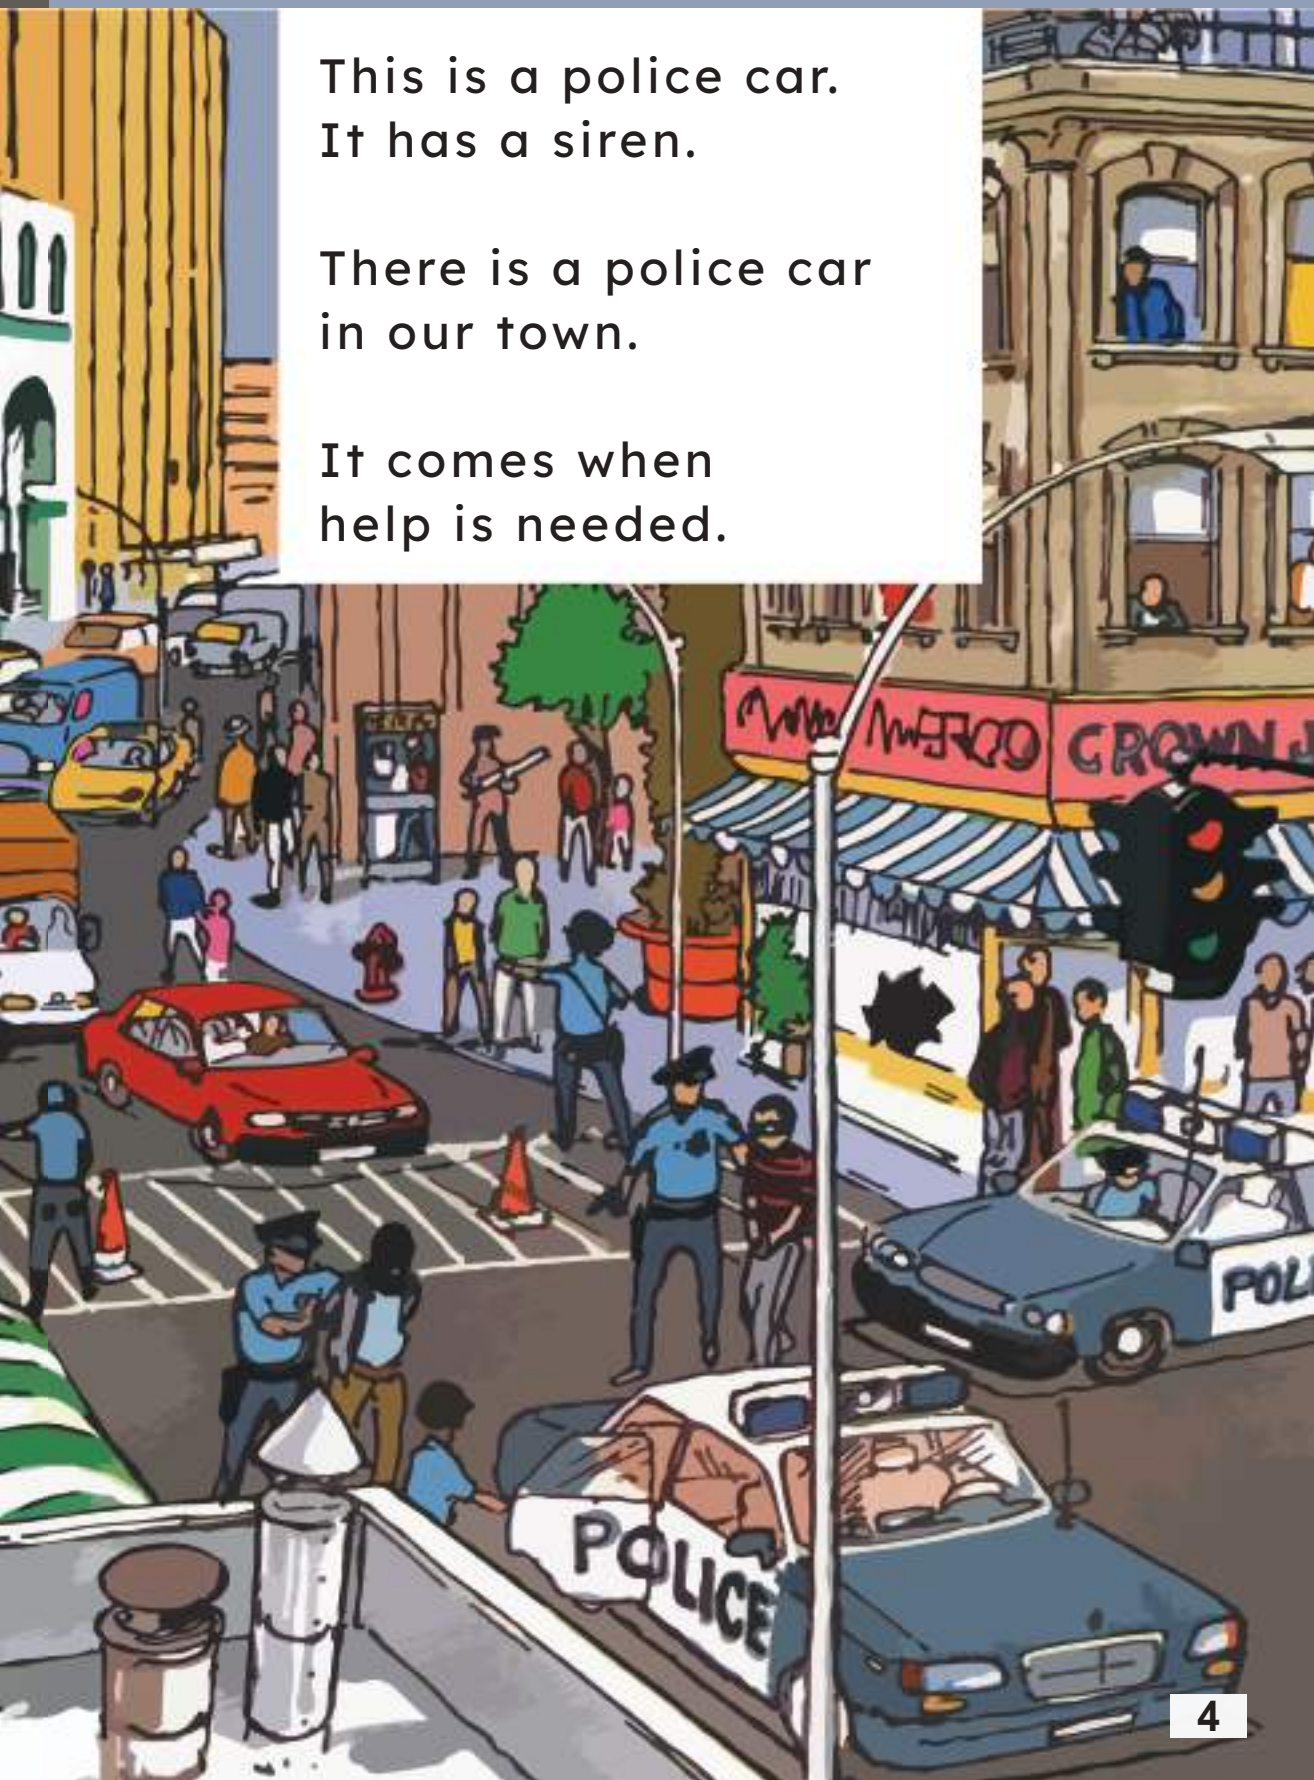

This is a police car.
It has a siren.

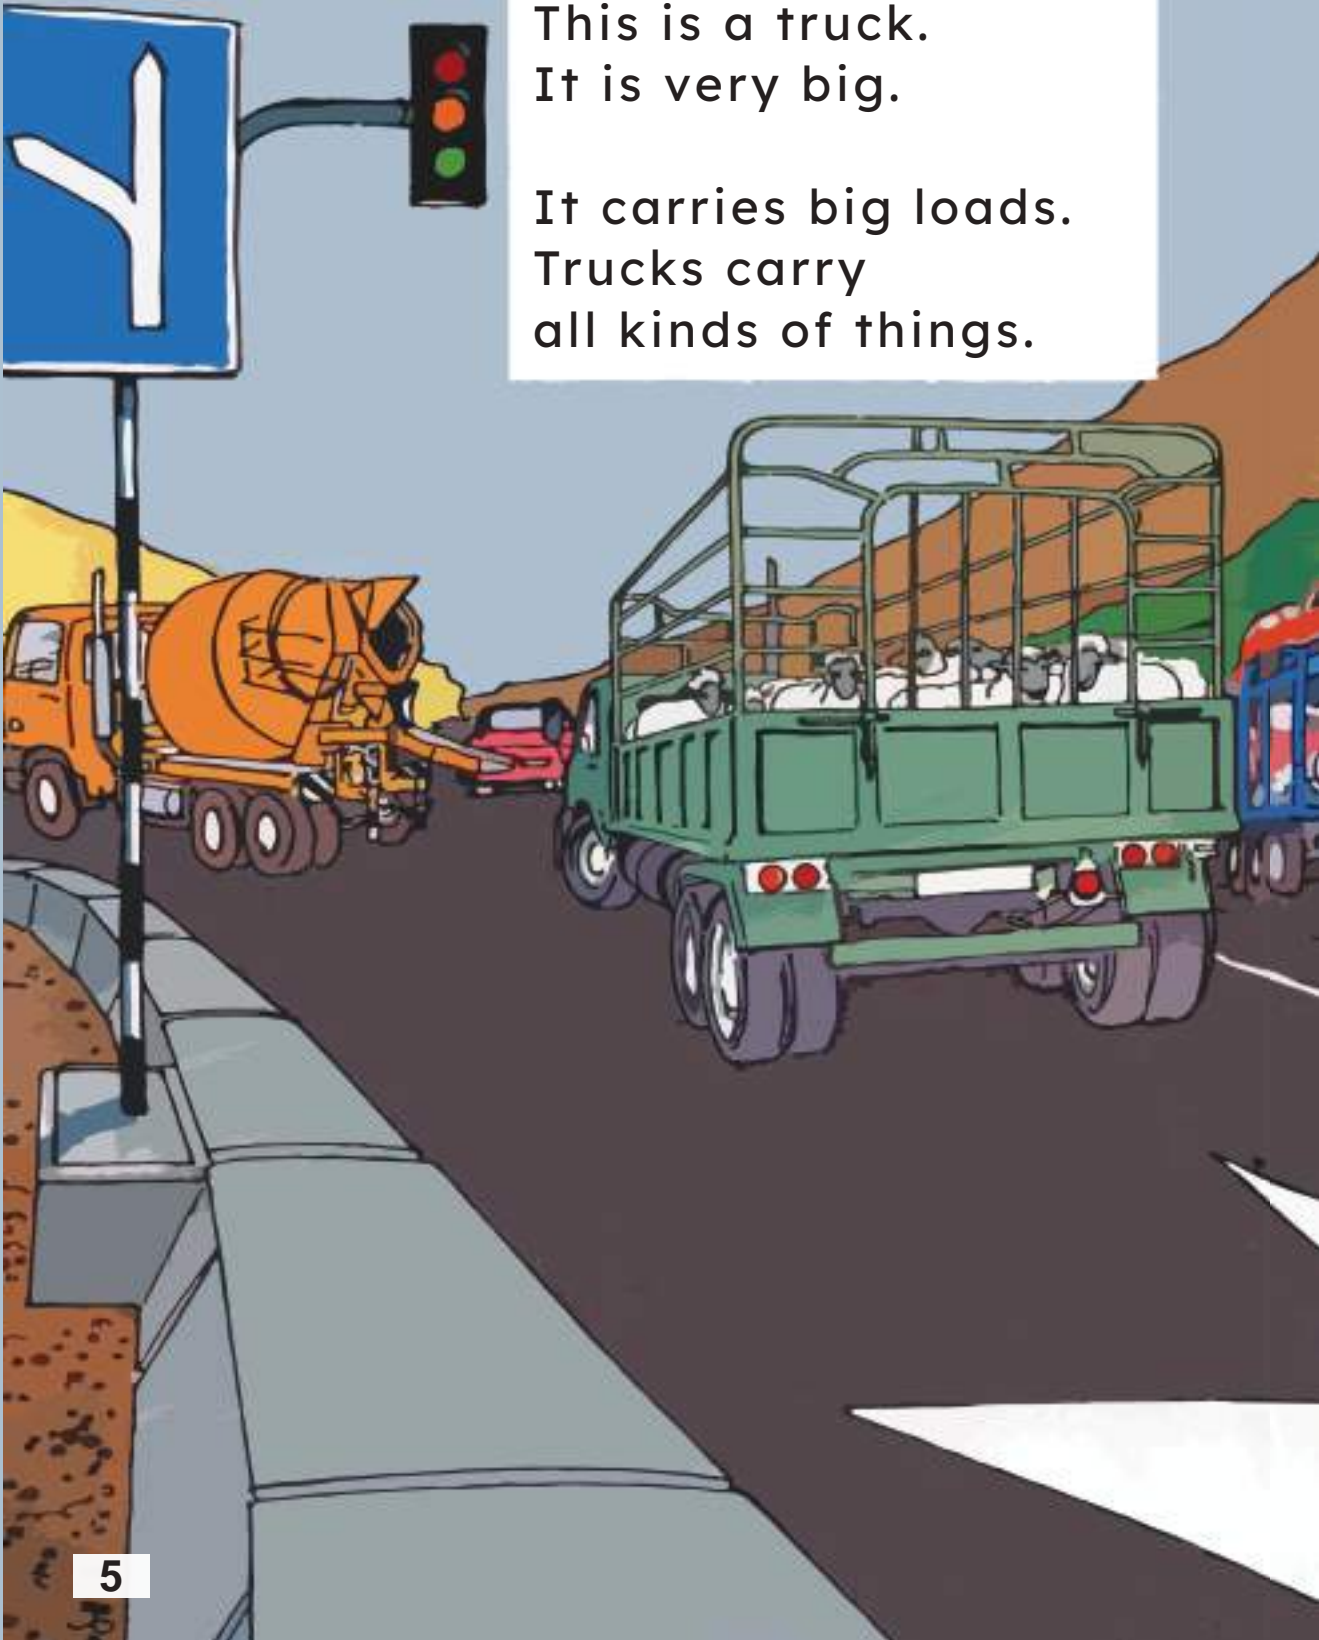

There is a police car
in our town.

It comes when help is needed.

This is a truck.
It is very big.

It carries big loads.
Trucks carry
all kinds of things.

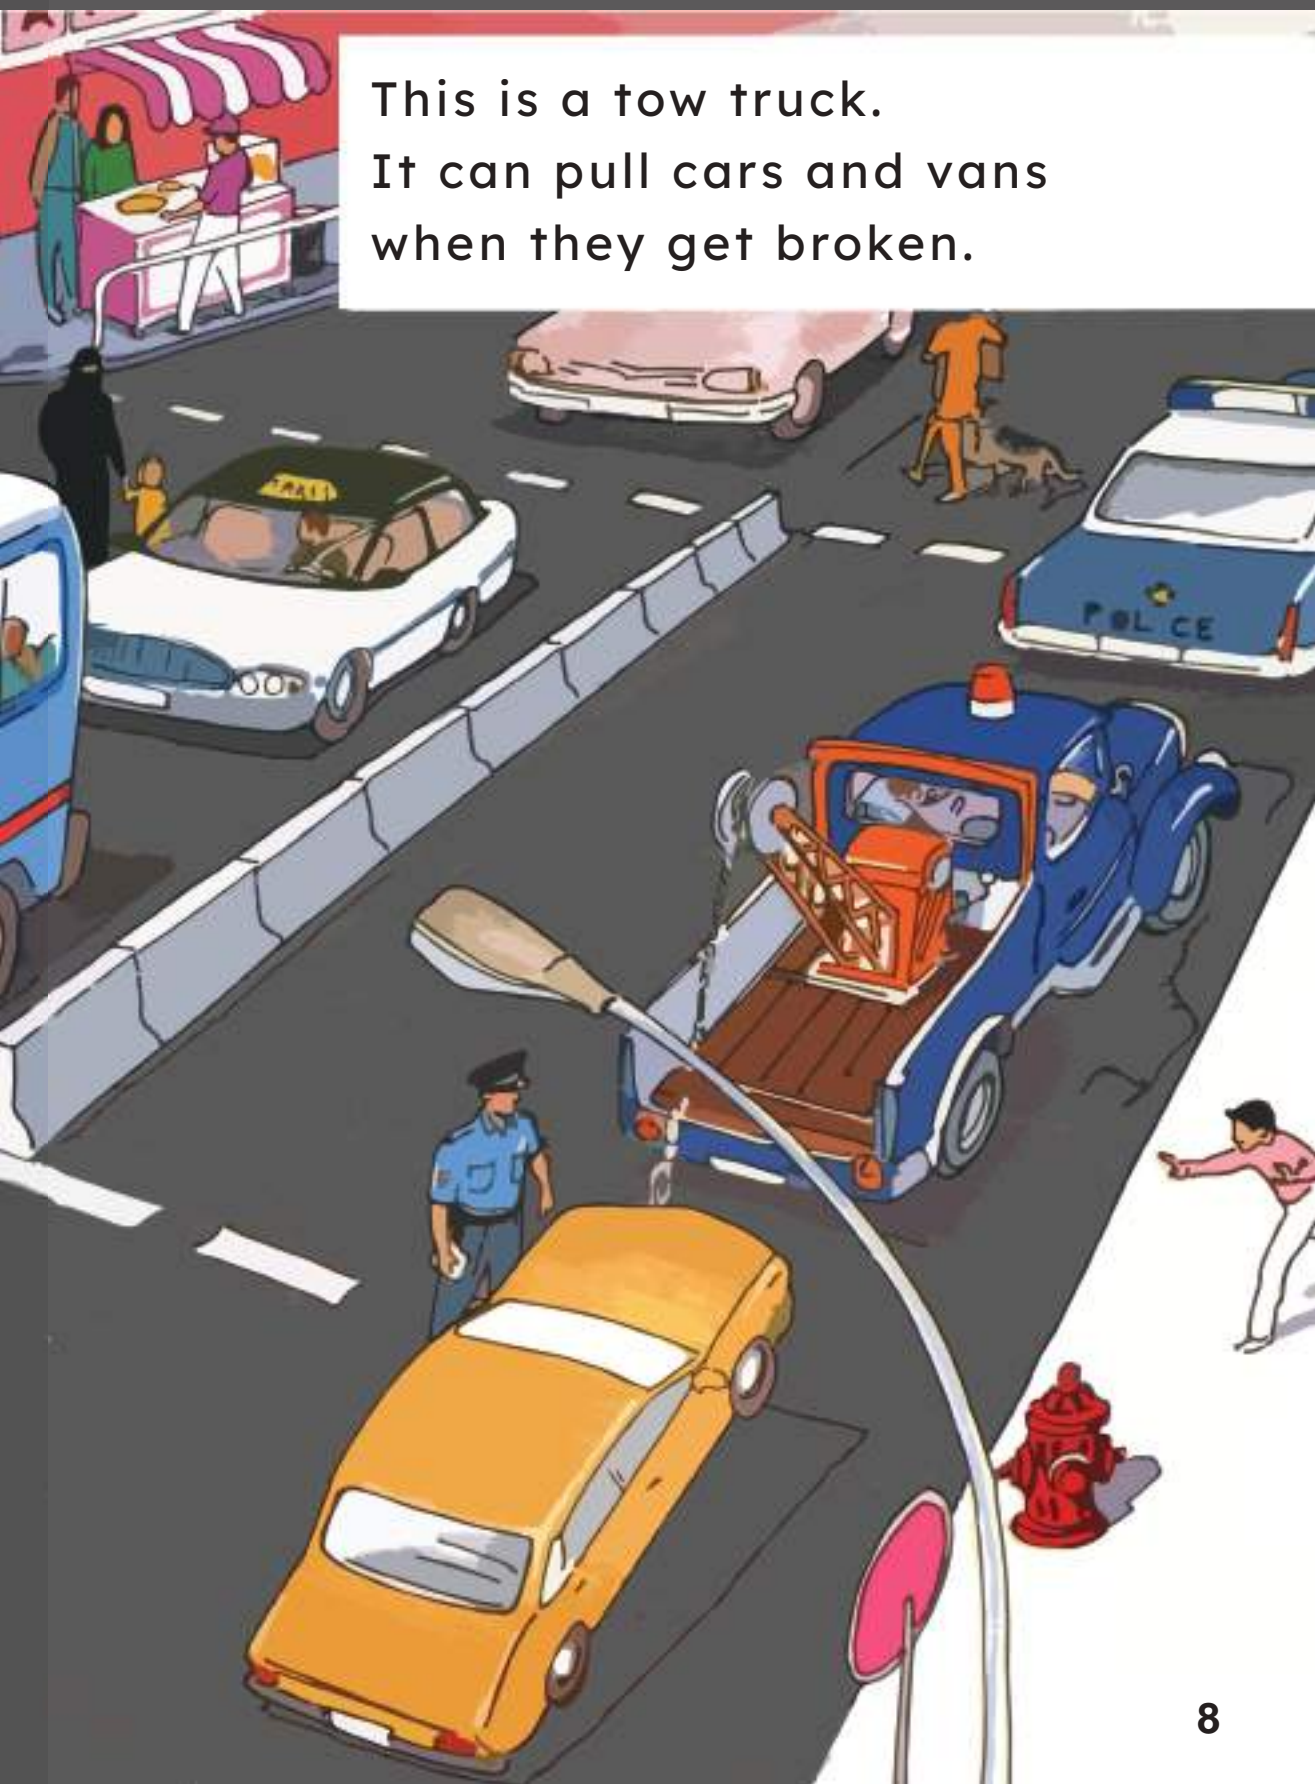

Some trucks are so big,
they even carry cars.

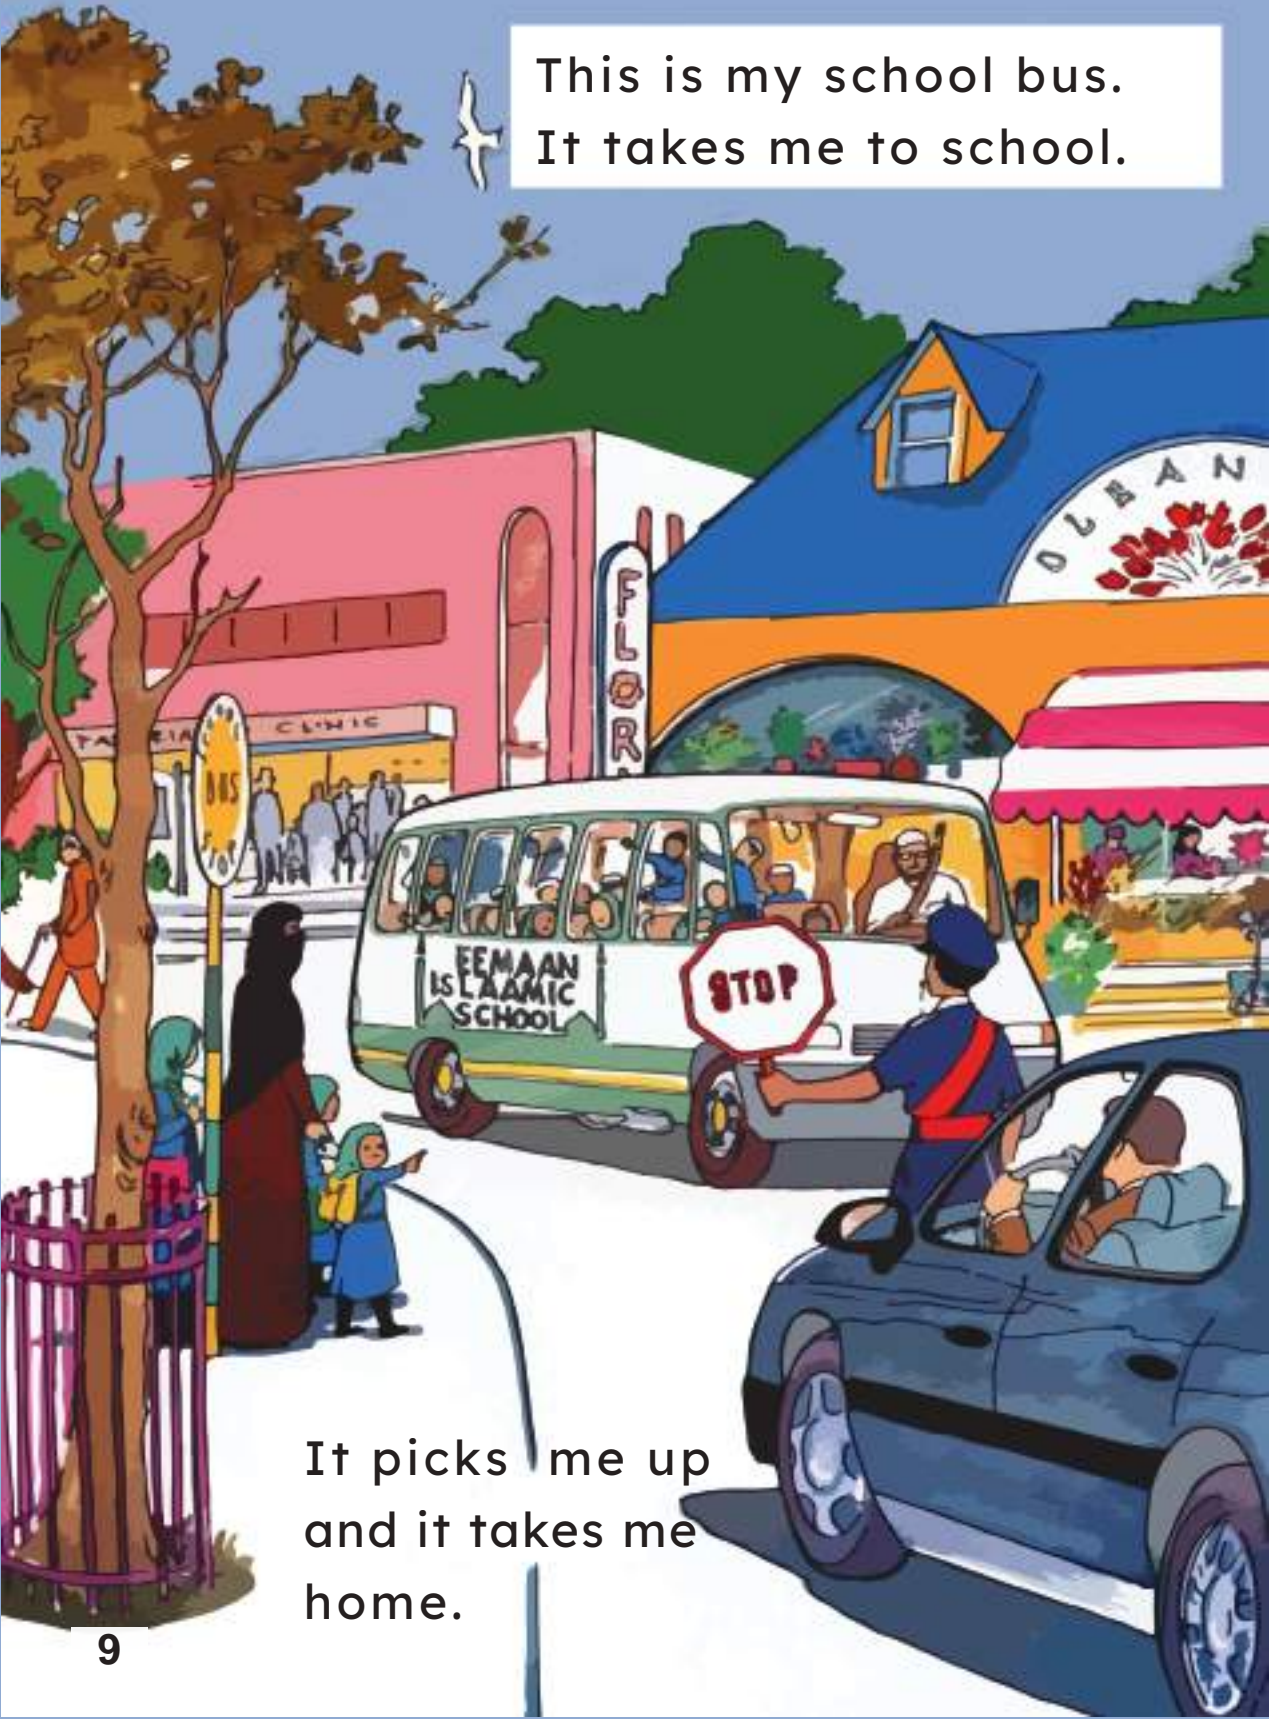

This is a bus.
It carries people.
There are buses in our town.

This is a tow truck.
It can pull cars and vans
when they get broken.

This is my school bus.
It takes me to school.

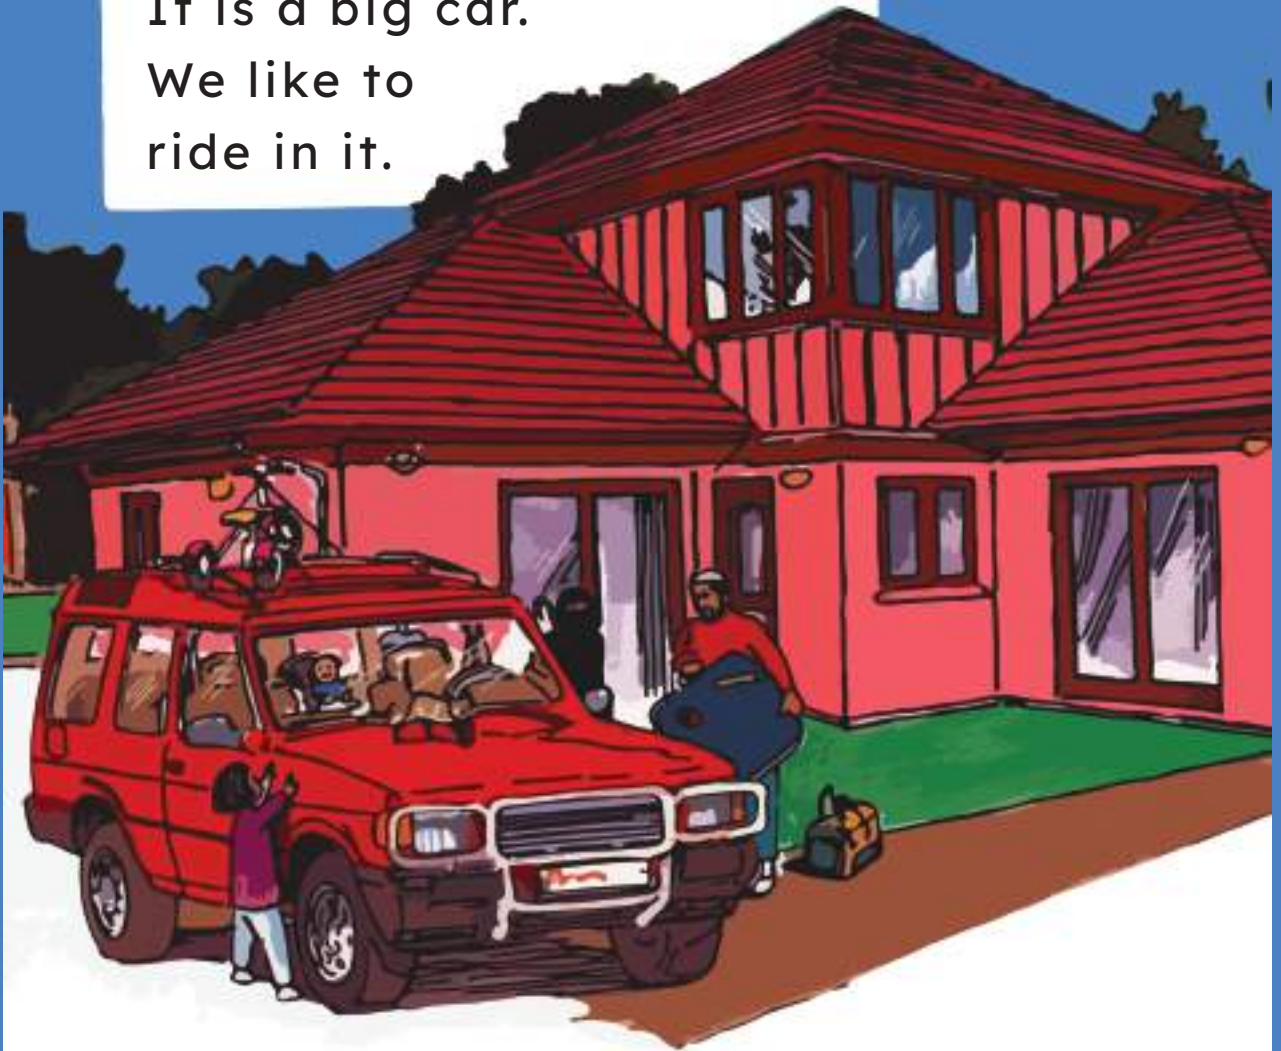

It picks me up
and it takes me
home.

Our Car

We have a car.

It is a big car.

We like to ride in it.

Dad and Mum
always say a prayer
before we ride.

We like to go on trips
in our car.

Dad likes to ride fast.

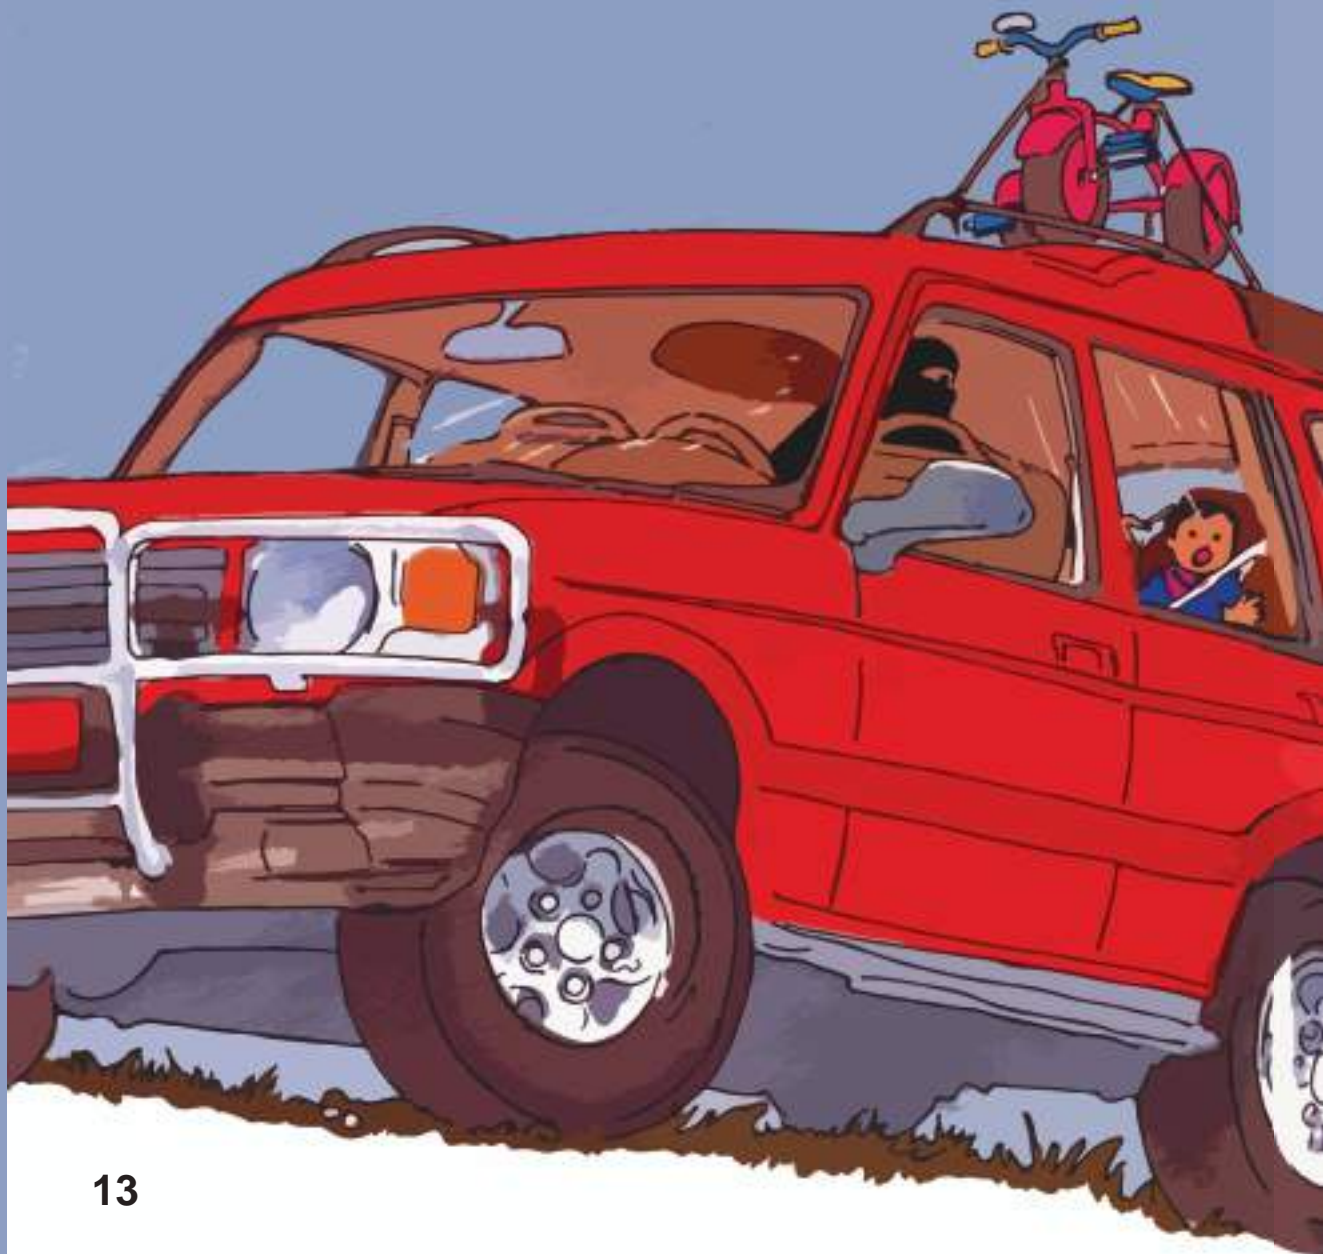

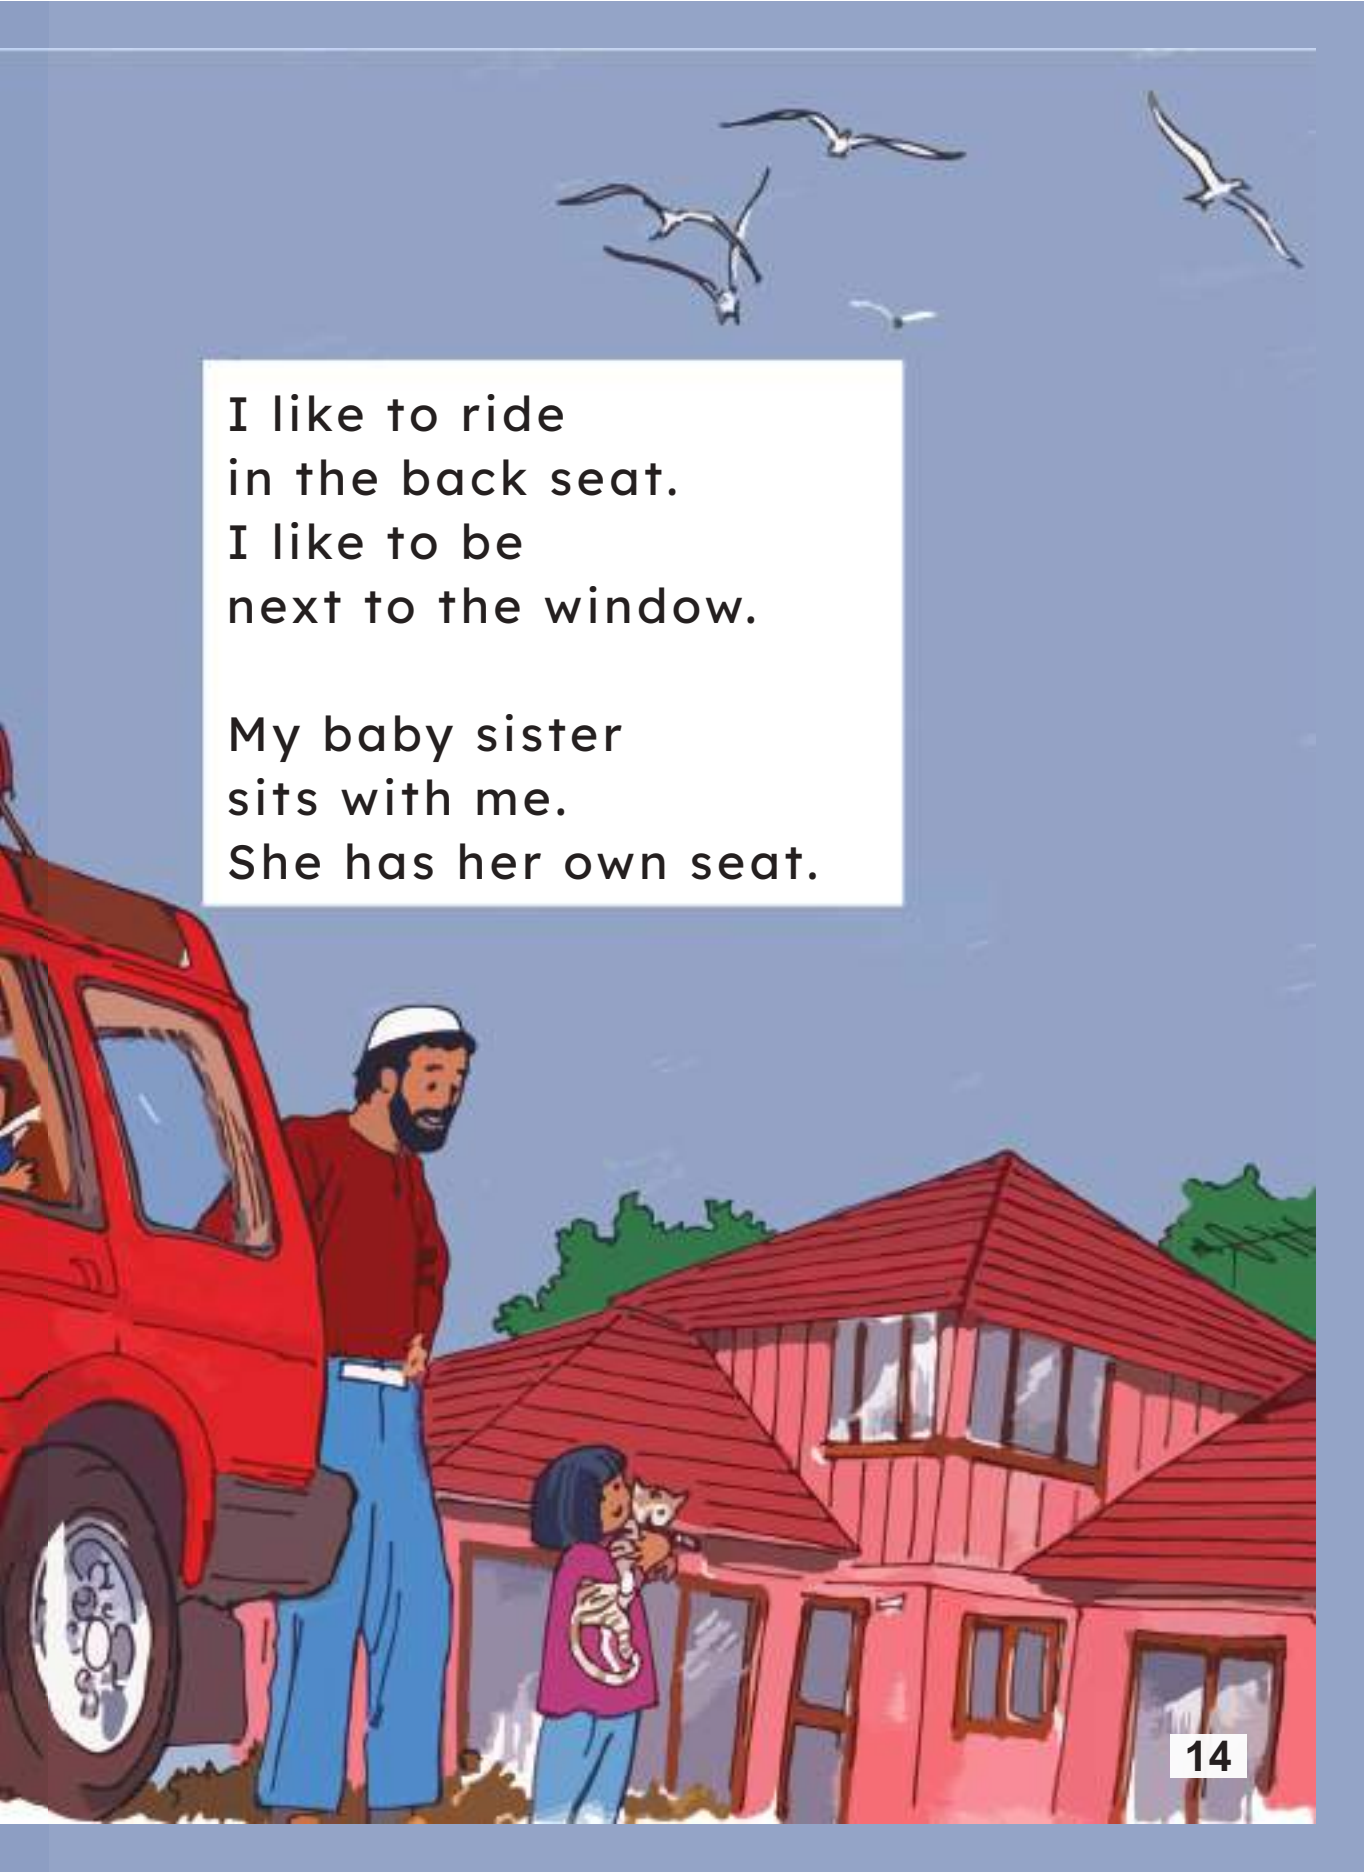

Mum likes to ride slow.

We like to pack our car
with many things.
We like to ride to the park.

The background of the page is a colorful illustration. On the left, a man with a beard and a white cap stands next to a red van. In the center, a young girl with dark hair holds a small white cat. They are in front of a red, two-story house with a gabled roof. The sky is blue with several white birds flying. A white text box is positioned in the upper left area of the illustration.

I like to ride
in the back seat.
I like to be
next to the window.

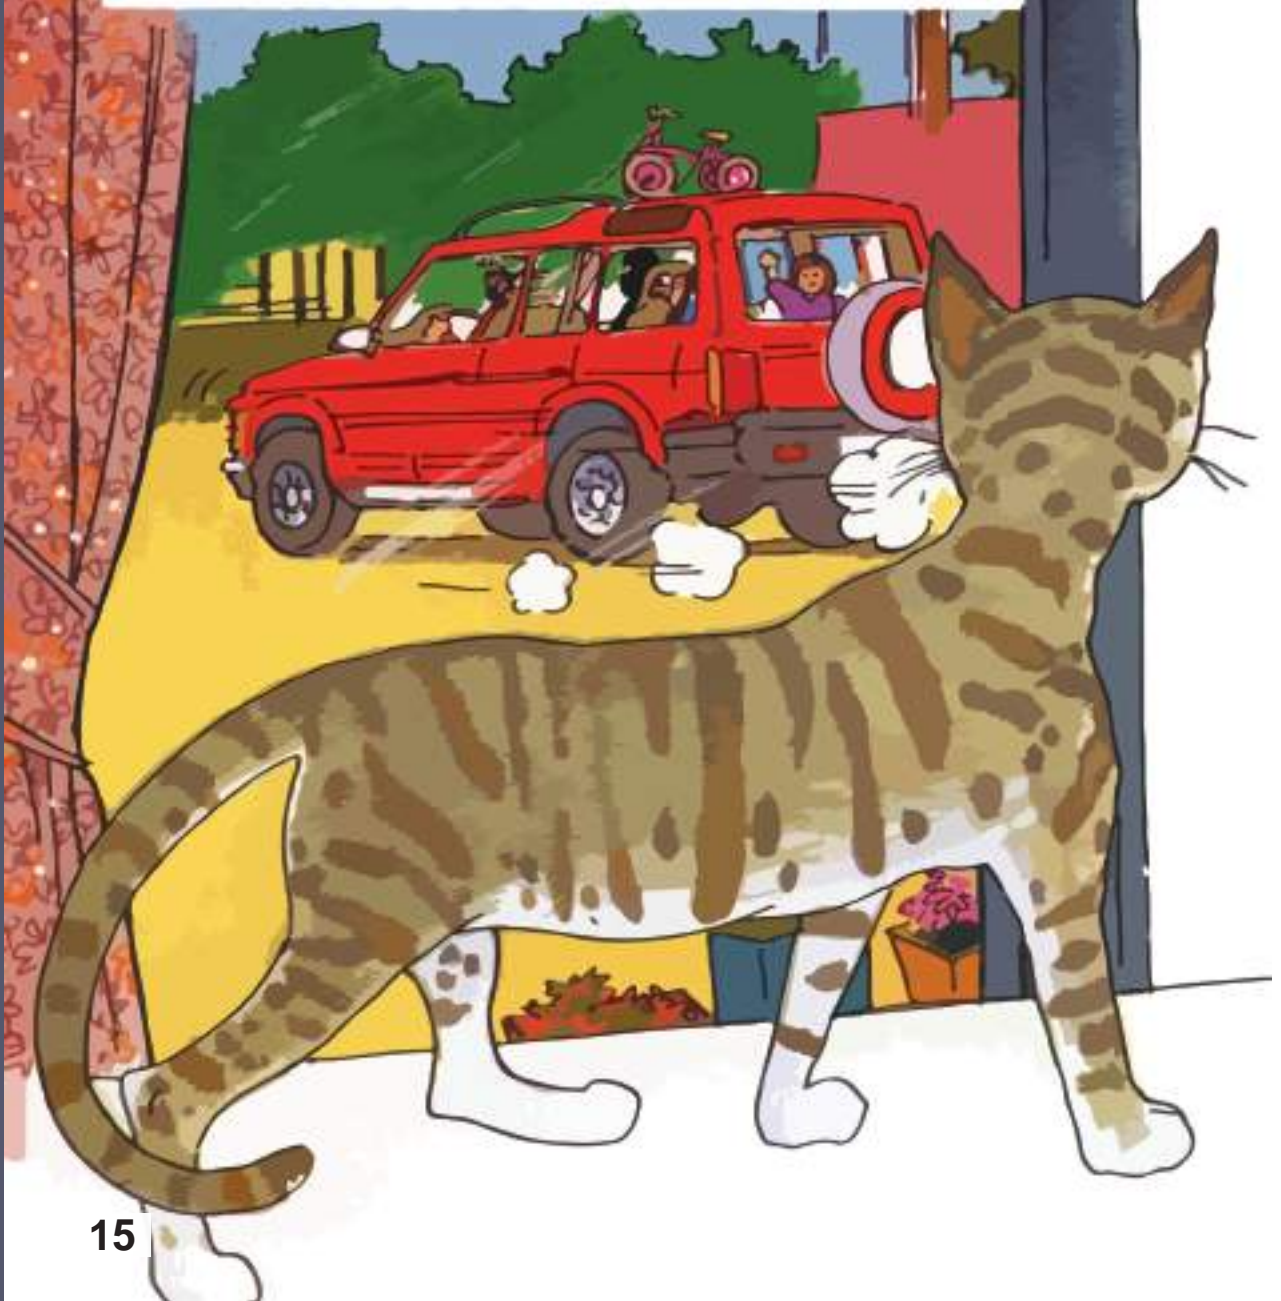

My baby sister
sits with me.
She has her own seat.

My cat does not like
to ride in the car.

He likes to sit in the window and watch us ride away.

“See you later, cat.”
